Gentlemen:

I enclose memorandum of my bids on the sale of Nov. 6th and 7th. I would very much like to have one of the 1793 Wreath cents. # 642 to 647. but do not know what price to make on it. Will you kindly give me an idea what they would bring. I would also like the priced catalogue from # 1 to 66. 639 to 782. These being only part of the sale I am interested in, there is no use in pricing the entire sale for me. If you will let me know what these will cost, I will remit the amount with my reply, to your answer to this letter.

Yours truly,

I will enclose 15¢ in stamps for pricing the numbers mentioned in my previous letter. If my bid on #642 is successful, I will be obliged to you if you will drop me a postal at once, as I may bid on a similar coin at the Frossard sale, on the 11th.

Dear Sirs:

I received the package which you sent me, and am very well satisfied with everything, except the #668, which is a 1799 over '98. This I am disappointed in. If agreeable to you, I would like to take the #702 then 1826 and the 1830, which you sent me on approval, in place of the #668. If there is any difference in the cost of the two, I will include it in my remittance. I also secured an 1811 over and 1810 at the Fossard Sale on Monday, which is in about the same condition as the one you sent me. This was my fault, and I have no Kick coming. Awaiting you reply, I am,

Yours truly,
